Promotious Settled Almost Entirely

In the columns of figures showing expeditive of the million-dollar appropriation there have appeared many significant items. The names of certain firms and supply companies have been repeated so often as to make them familiar to readers. To those who are not thoroughly conversant with the details of the Comptroller's office and the Department of Finance it might be well to reader that J. H. Timmerman is the City Paymaster. He has nothing to do with auditing bills or vouchers, but pays the Montiture of the million-colour spectroms with the colour section of the colour section

PHILADELPHIA ON EDGE.

The quaker City Thronged and Football is King.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—The staid old Quaker City has shaken off its lethargy for the nonce, and in its place assumed a garb of almost fanatical enthusiasm. High and low alike are to-day doing homage to the canvas-clad warriors of Pennsylvania and Harvard.

Never in the history of college football in this city has so much interest and enthusiasm been manifested. The city is filled with the adherents of the rival teams. Everybody is in the utmost good humor, and football weather reigns suppreme. A cloudless sky and cold wind, the latter somewhat tempered with the genial rays of old Sol, who seems to smile a welcome to the warring horder from his eminent height. These are the elements which will materially contribute to making this afternoon's game one of the greatest in the history of the sport.

At the offices of the game. The crowds were not as bolsterous and as enthusiasistic as most football throngs, and the expression: "What a shame that Yale should have deprived New York of its usual Thanksgiving Day game." was frequently heard. There was considerable feeling against Yale for its arction regarding the game here.

Even money is freely wagered on the result, and the Quakers are backing their favorite freely. Several tets of 1 to 4 that Harvard will not score have been registered, while one enthusiastic supporter of the red and blue bet $100 to $500 that Pennsylvania would defeat Harvard worse than Yale did.

The umpire question has been settled at last. Laurie Blies, of Yale, will be the referee; Paul J. Dashiel, umpire, and J. A. Garfield, linesman.

Compelled to Contribute Dinner to a $1,500 Janitor.

Queer Practices in Public School No. 35, Brooklyn.

Mayor Schieren Will Make a Searching investigation.

Mayor Schieren, of Brooklyn, has received a complaint from one George P. Wilson, who claims that the teachers of Grammar School No. 35, Lewis avenue and Decatur street, have been levying tribute on his children and other scholars to provide a Thanksgiving dinner for the janitor, Archibald Dun-can. The Mayor is incensed, and tomorrow will begin a rigid investigation.

Mr. Wilson alleges that the children of Misa Valentine's class were instructed early in the week to bring 10 or 15 cents early in the week to bring 16 or 15 cents each to make a purse to be presented to Janitor Duncan.

He claims the children were told that the names of all contributing to the fund would be kept. This was done, it is alleged, to make the non-givers feel small.

There is no George P. Wilson in the directory. No one by the name of Wilson could be found this morning who was willing to father the letter to Mayor
